GREENMAN.

(From Letter of Mrs. Fred Ball, of Clinton, Ill. to Milo Custer.)

Mr. Milo Custer, Bloomington, Ill.

"Dear Sir, Your letter, with its interesting data and invitation to join the new society,* was very welcome. If at some future time, I can give you proof of service of any of my ancestors, I will gladly do so, but since they all, with the exception of Lt. Jeremiah Greenman and Joshua Cantrell, lived and died in the East, Vt. Mass. and R. I., I cannot possibly write on for the necessary records in time to be ready Oct. 2nd. I am sorry."

"Mary Greenman, sister of Jeromiah Jr. and John, - (children of Lt. Jeremiah Greenman and Mary Eddy, of Providence, R. I.) was my fathers grandmother, and their service does my line no good, but I am very glad to have it to put in my book of 'The Ancestry of the Descendants of William Dunham and Susanna Williams, of Taunton, Mass.' which I hope to publish for private distribution some day."

* * * * *

"Lieut. Jeromiah Greenman was born in Newport, R. I. on the 7th day of May, 1758, and died in Waterford, O. on the 15th day of Nov. 1828." "Miss Mary Noble, (dau. of Dr. Stephen Noble,) of 121 N. Western Avenue, Hollywood, Calif. has his diary, it having come to her through her mother, Amanda, daughter of John, son of Lieut. Jeromiah Greenman. It is intensely interesting to us. The opening lines are 'The following journal contains the material transactions of the war as they fell under my observation or came to my knowledge, and the private incidents of my life. They commence from the 13th of September, 1775, soon after my entering the service of the United States and were penned entirely for my own amusement at the time of writing, and as a memorial of facts which I supposed might yield me some pleasure in recollection.' * * His diary tells of his imprisonment at Quebec. * * * The book also gives accounts of entertainments of Washington and his officers in Saratoga and other places, where they always gave thirteen toasts, which he has written down." "His wife was Mary Eddy, dau. of Esek Eddy, of Providence, R. I. (son of Jeromiah and Elizabeth Eddy,) and Mary Perry, (dau. of Thomas and Martha Perry,) born in Providence, R. I. 1738. This is in the public records of Providence, R. I."

"A Jeromiah Greenman and Amy Wyles were married in Providence long enough before the birth of Lt. J. G. to have been his parents, and while I can find no proof, I believe them to have been, for his son-in-law, William W. Dunham I, named a daughter Amy Wyles. A daughter, Mary, named her dau. Amy Wiles, (not Wy-) and my grand-father, Jeromiah Perry Dunham, son of William W. Dunham I, who married Lt. J. G.'s dau. Mary, named a daughter Amy."

"I believe that is all I can tell you that is not in the McLean County History, excepting that his late grand-daughter, Amanda G. Noble, said that the land granted him 'as a member of the order of the Cincinnati' was in Virginia, in that part which is now in Kentucky. Another of the family says that it is near Old Town, Kentucky, and that the record can be found in Washington."

"Again thanking you for your kindness, I am

Yours Sincerely"

(Mrs. Fred) Ivanilla Dunham Ball.

DUIS.

Professor Etzard Duis, author and compiler of the original edition of "The Good Old Times in McLean County, Illinois," the first and best work of its kind ever published in McLean County, and which the late Ezra M. Prince very justly referred to as a veritable mine of local history and biography, was the second child of Jan and Himke Luis, and was born at Fulkum, near Essen, in the German Rheinland, August 19, 1825. By an accident received in childhood, he was disabled for life from performing manual labor or earning a living thereby. He received his first higher education through charity and the recommendation of the district school superintendent after leaving common school at Neu Hallaghers, and found engagement as a "Haus Lehrer," or private tutor by Herr Peter Becker at Neu Hallaghers, until he was twenty-one years old. He then attended the college at Ratzhold and a few years later, the University at Hanover, where he was honored with the diploma of a Professor, having taken a complete course and full examinations in German, French and English.

For several years he worked at the University of Hamel. He was then called and took charge as the principal teacher at the Seminary at Bremen, Germany, and later at Leeds and Hull, England. From thence he came to America in 1868, and took up his residence in South Dixon, Ill., with his brother Jelle Duis, and soon succeeded in finding medical assistance for his crippled limb through the skill of Dr. C. C. Hunt of Dixon.

After engagement as principal of the High School at Bloomington, Ill., in 1872, where he taught German for one year, he undertook the preparation of a series of biographical sketches of the pioneers of McLean County, which in 1874 he published under the title of "The Good Old Times in McLean County, Illinois," containing two hundred and sixty-one sketches of old settlers, a complete historical sketch of the Black Hawk war, and a description of many matters of interest pertaining to McLean County.

In 1875 he visited the Fatherland and returning the following year he found employment as a teacher in Chicago. He again crossed the Atlantic in 1884, became engaged to and married Fraulein Helena Ahlers, oldest daughter of Rev. Lenhart and Frau Cornelia Ahlers, of Bleersum, near Wittmund. Their marriage took place March 17, 1885. Returning to this country in 1886, he settled on a farm in Marion Township, Lee County, Illinois, near Dixon, where he died May 28, 1893, after suffering nearly six months from heart disease, leaving two sons, Fred and Jason Duis, three brothers and one sister.

Prof. Duis was a member of the Lutheran Church, and his funeral sermon was preached by his pastor, Rev. Ruthauf.

Mss. Autobiography of Rev. Wm. C. Bramwell, 1859, and Information from Miss Henrietta Bramwell, and Mrs. Lydia (Bramwell) Chapman, Bloomington, Ill.

COSSITT.

(Copied from Mss. Autobiography of Mrs. Dr. Eleazar Martin, daughter of Ann Catharine (Cossitt) Perkins, written during the years 1876, '7 & '8, and now owned by her grand-daughter, Mrs. W. C. Lindsay, of Lexington, Ill.)

RENE COSSITT, Senior, was born in Paris, France, about the year 1690, married Ruth Porter of Waterbury, Conn. (Or Farmington,) about the year 1720, and died at Granby, about 1770. Their Children:

Rene (Ranna) Cossitt, Junior, born 1722, died 1810. (?) Married; First wife, Phoebe Hillyer, who died Jan. 22, 1786; Second wife, Martha Holcomb died July 10, 1798; third wife, Martha Barker.

Francois (Fransway) Cossitt, born 1726, died July 23, 1816.

Timothy Cossitt, (born about 1728) died about 1800.

John Cossitt, (born about 1730) died at Waterbury, Conn.

Alexander Cossitt, (born about 1732) died at Granby, about 1820.

Peggy Cossitt (born about 1734) married Nathaniel Holcomb.

Molly Cossitt, (born about 1736) married Thomas Weston of Waterbury, Conn

Ruth Cossitt, (born about 1738) married Andrew Moore.

Lydia Cossitt, (born about 1740) Never married."

"You have the names of Ranna, Jr.'s family correct, tho you have left out the name of Phoebe, (who) died at Granby, 1808. I find the name was spelt differently by some of the descendants, for instance, Cossit, Cosit Coset, Cossett, Cossitt. (also Cossite.) I saw the name of Count de la Cossitte, in Paris, France, when there, and presume that it is the same. The above is an extract of a letter written by Frederick H. Cossitt to his cousin Hattie E. Cossitt."

(The following was copied from an old bible printed at Cambridge, England 1770, and also owned by Mrs. W. C. Lindsay)

"Ambrose Cossitt & Ann Cole was married February the first Day, on Sunday by the Rev. Mr. Piets, (Or Liet?) in the year 1778" (Son of Rene Cossitt, Jr. Their Children:

"Anne C. Cossit (Mrs. J. A. Perkins) was born the 5th day of May on Wednesday, one o'clock afternoon, 1779, (and) was christened by the Rev. Mr. Cossit; her suretys were Nehemiah Rice & Wife & Madam Cossit."

"Mary Alma Cossit was born 1781, February 26th, at one o'clock morning. Her suretys were Hezekiah Rice & Wife (and) Madam Cossitt."

Betsy Ruth (Cossit) was born the 21 day of April, 1782, at 2 o'clock morning. Her suretys were Hezekiah Rice and Wife (and) Miss Dodge"

"Ambrose Cossit (Jr.) was born August 28th 1785 on Sunday, the sun one hour high in (the) morning. Suretys, Hezekiah"

(Authors re-arrangement of part of the foregoing with additional material from the same source.)
